Symposium on Academic Integrity SAI'24
Theme: Governance, AI, and Academic Integrity

Terms and Conditions for Symposium Participation

Welcome to our Symposium on Academic Integrity. By registering for and participating in this symposium, you agree to the following terms and conditions.

Use of Generative AI Tools

Acknowledgement and Attribution: When using generative AI (GenAI) tools during the symposium, either for demonstrations, presentations, or academic discussions, you must adhere to ethical practices of acknowledgement and attribution. Clearly cite and credit the use of GenAI outputs in your academic work, ensuring transparency about the origin of the content generated by AI technologies.

Responsible Use: Engage with GenAI tools responsibly and with integrity, adhering to the academic standards set forth in the symposium discussions and materials.

Consent for Photography and Videography

Grant of Rights: You hereby grant the symposium organizers the right to take photographs and video recordings during the event. These images and videos may be used for educational, promotional, and archival purposes.

Use of Images: By participating, you consent to the use of your likeness in photographs, videos, and other digital media without payment or any other consideration. You understand that these images may be edited, copied, exhibited, published, or distributed, and waive the right to inspect or approve the finished product wherein your likeness appears.

Consent to Use of Feedback and Responses

Anonymized Use for Research: You agree that any feedback, testimonials, or responses you provide during or in relation to the symposium can be used in an anonymized format for research purposes. The data collected will be used to enhance educational practices and may be published in academic journals or presented at future conferences.

Confidentiality and Privacy: We are committed to protecting your privacy. No personally identifiable information will be associated with your responses in any reports or analyses derived from these data.

Modifications to Terms: These terms and conditions may be amended or updated occasionally to meet legal, technological, or operational needs. Participants will be informed of any significant changes in advance of the symposium.

Agreement: By registering and participating in the symposium, you acknowledge that you have read and agree to these terms and conditions.
